Who Shall Enter Paradise?: Christian Origins in Muslim Northern Nigeria, c. 1890-1975

By Shobana Shankar

Ohio University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Who Shall Enter Paradise?: Christian Origins in Muslim Northern Nigeria, c. 1890-1975, Shobana Shankar, Who Shall Enter Paradise? recounts in detail the history of Christian-Muslim engagement in a core area of sub-Saharan Africa's most populous nation, home to roughly equal numbers of Christians and Muslims. It is a region today beset by religious violence, in the course of which history has often been told in overly simplified or highly partisan terms. This book reexamines conversion and religious identification not as fixed phenomena, but as experiences shaped through cross-cultural encounters, experimentation, collaboration, protest, and sympathy. Shobana Shankar relates how Christian missions and African converts transformed religious practices and politics in Muslim Northern Nigeria during the colonial and early postcolonial periods. Although the British colonial authorities prohibited Christian evangelism in Muslim areas and circumscribed missionary activities, a combination of factors - including Mahdist insurrection, the abolition of slavery, migrant labor, and women's evangelism - brought new converts to the faith. By the 1930s, however, this organic growth of Christianity in the north had given way to an institutionalized culture based around medical facilities established in the Hausa emirates. The end of World War...
