Moderoom Press, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The poem begins in an ancient garden in the midnight city, where a nocturnal recollection of the past begins an epic voyage traversing centuries of ideas and continents of profound imagery. The Basement Trains, Payne s greatest long poem, written when he was 28 years old, conjures up a wealth of poetic legacies: from Dante s visit to the underworld, to TS Eliot s Mind of Europe. Here, one sees William Blake, Milton, the Catholic Bible, Greek and Roman myth, Russian folklore; and, beyond this, one hears the voice of Roman Payne in its purest poetic form. This bilingual first-edition contains the superb translation into French by Aurlien Galateau. This edition is illustrated with photographic plates by the author. Published by ModeRoom Press, 2006 - Paris, France.
