THE CATHAR DIALOGUES

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Cathar Dialogues is not your ordinary book. What commenced as an unremarkable beginning of journal entries, became a series of mind-opening talks that filters clear the muddy waters of some current clichéd perceptions of Medieval Catharism, which is expressed with an enlightened lightness of style coupled to ironic wit. The somewhat unusual situation, in that one contributor is alive while the other dead, only adds to its incongruity. However, this book is destined for the open-minded few with an inquiring bent, rather than that of the blinkered multitudinous herd. Between the years of 2000 and 2007, these quite unusual dialogues took place between Guillaume de Mirepoix and Henri de Nebours. They cover a range of insightful discussions about varied topics between a person and their spirit guide, though they centre around Cathar philosophy. Such experiences are not entirely uncommon. For instance, that series of books written by Dr Arthur Guirdham, which described various experiences within a group reincarnation of Mediaeval Cathars in Somerset England. In some ways, this book, though in an entirely different vein, is a continuance of that episode, in as much, that the spirit guide, Braida de Montserver, also played her part in ushering The Cathar Dialogues to fruition. If you appreciated reading any of Dr. Guirdham's books, you should also enjoy this book, even though it is more intellectually frank. But as Henri mentioned, Reality, is blunt. What unfolds in The Cathar Dialogues, is the chance to encounter the mind, heart and soul, of an educated Mediaeval Cathar Perfecti, who discusses with humour and uncommon insight, a range of issues that vary from the mundane and ordinary, to the deep...
