Two occurred on board ship from the effects of gunshot wounds received in action, and one, after arrival at home, was a case of cut-throat, suicidal, in a state of mental depression. In addition to that alluded to above, there was, among other operations, an amputation at the ankle joint on account of caries, with successful result; also a case of tapping and drainage of hepatic abscess, with fatal result. Invaliding.--The total number of men invalided home from Egypt during the year was 1,462, equal to 152-40 per 1,000, which is a much higher ratio than in the previous year. This increase was due to the effects of the Suakin and Nile campaigns. The principal causes of invaliding were as follows: --Enteric fever 174 cases, equal to a...
