Excerpt: .they appeared before the magistrates, and by pronouncing the simple words, I am a Christian, calmly resigned themselves to imprisonment, ignominy and death. Could such women have had their minds occupied by the foolish vanity of ornamental apparel? No! Christianity struck at the root of all sin, and consequently we find the early Christians could not fight, or swear, or wear costly clothing. Cave, in his work entitled Primitive Christianity, has some interesting remarks on this subject, showing that simplicity of dress was not then esteemed an unimportant part of Christianity. Very soon, however, when the fire of persecution was no longer blazing, pagan customs became interwoven with Christianity. The professors of the religion of a self-denying Lord, whose kingdom was not of this world, began to use the sword, to return railing for railing, to take oaths, to mingle heathen forms and...
