Forth from his loosened belt the apples fell, And, as with live delight, roll d bounding down the dell. vr No nymph put forth a kind preventing hand; Swifter than lizards, darting one by one, They crash like glass against a milk-white stone, Then lie three sparkling heaps upon the strand. Day s vivid eye laughed gaily on the stream, But o er the prince s heart there gloomed a deadly dream. vll Alas! it was no dream: for, sick and cold, Fixed like a sculptured marble to the place, As though he looked dread Gorgon in the face, Vaguely he stared upon the shattered gold. How long, who knows? but now a startling sight Wakes up his soul again to rapturous life and light. VIII For from each heap arose a slender jet: You might describe them diamond, pearl, and flame, For...
